General Wahr

Making Them Different, Clint Young, 158
Manuscript Market, The, 19, 54, 86, 134, 174, 210, 244, 280, 318, 351, 387, 425
McCann, Dorothy B., Do's and Don'ts of Radio Writing, 37
McNeil, Steve, Start Searching for People, 12
Miller, Lois, I Sell My Neighbors, 316
Mind Your P's, Virginia Hallam Findlow, 196
Mines, Robert, Articles Everyone Will Read, 422
Mirrielees, Edith Ronald, Humoring Your Editor, 82
Molloy, Robert, Random Thoughts on Fiction Writing, 374
Moore, Isabel, The Four-Thousand-Word Short Story, 371

News from the New York Market, Iris Litt, 31, 67, 103, 151, 187, 223, 259, 295, 331, 368, 403, 439
Nicholson, C. A., Elements of the Short Story, 202

Obstacle Race, Faith Baldwin, 299
On Our Anniversary, 111
Owen, Jean Z., Keep Your Ideas Coming, 310

Patterson, Catherine Clara, Why a Writers' Conference, 169
Peterson, Phyllis Lee, Writing Is Learning, 410
Plot and the People, The, Sidney Herschel Small, 120
Plot Is a Spiral Stairway, Hazel Sullivan, 306
Plotless Story, The, Frank Brookhouser, 14
Prize Offers and Awards, 30, 66, 100, 149, 185, 221, 257, 293, 330, 367, 400, 438

Questions Everyone Asks, Paul R. Reynolds, 71

Ramsey, Betty Jo, see Allard, Winston
Random Thoughts on Fiction Writing, Robert Molloy, 374
Repair Techniques for Stories, James E. Cronin, 413
Reynolds, Paul R., Questions Everyone Asks, 71
Rowland, Florence Wightman, That Foreign Flavor, 132; Characters Must Live, 416

Sara, Dorothy, How to Write the "How To," 200
Selling the Idea First, by editors of Better Homes & Gardens, Coronet, Redbook and Woman's Home Companion, 263
Selling to the Chain Publishers, 207
Sharpening Your Editorial Wits, Wesley Haynes, 237
Sherman, Elisabeth, Tear It to Pieces, 346
Short Short — Story Concentrate, The, Mona Williams, 339
Small, Sidney Herschel, The Plot and the People, 120
Start Searching for People, Steve McNeil, 12
Stierhem, Eleanor, Fiction Tips from Today's Woman, 342
Story Opening, The, Dorothy Thomas, 76
Sullivan, Hazel, Plot Is a Spiral Stairway, 306; Converting Raw Materials, 419
Szold, Helen Davis, Give the Big Slicks a Little Hand, 407

Tear It to Pieces, Elisabeth Sherman, 346
Tell It with People, Douglas Lurton, 377
That Foreign Flavor, Florence Wightman Rowland, 132
There's a Knack to Beginning, F. Fraser Bond, 348
They Mirror Our Day-Dreams, Robert C. Cosbey, 163
Thomas, Dorothy, The Story Opening, 76
To a Very Young Writer, Amelia Elizabeth Walden, 276
Try the Four-way Sentence, Helen Hinckley, 41
Typewriter, Here I Come!, Pat Cummings, 242

Vetter, Marjorie, Who's Afraid of an Editor?, 116
Vocation and Vacation, Phyllis A. Whitney, 126
Von Kleist, Ric, Free-Lancing Newspaper Features, 52

Walden, Amelia Elizabeth, To a Very Young Writer, 276
What Is a Good Story?, Arch Whitehouse, 113
Where Do You Get Your Plots?, A symposium, by Mary Augusta Rodgers, Gertrude Schweitzer, B. J. Chute, Alec Rackowe, Steve McNeil, Elise Jerard, and Ruth-Ellen Storey, 335
Whitehouse, Arch, What Is a Good Story?, 113
Whitney, Phyllis A., Vocation and Vacation, 126
Who Says What — and Why, Mona Farnsworth, 161
Who's Afraid of an Editor?, Marjorie Vetter, 116
Why a Writers' Conference, Catherine Clara Patterson 169
Why the Form Rejection?, A symposium by editors of Collier's, Coronet, Saturday Evening Post, Standard Magazines, Today's Woman, Woman's Day, Farrar, Straus & Young, Little Brown & Co., William Sloane Associates, and others, 3
Williams, Mona, The Short Short — Story Concentrate, 339
Wisdom from Agents, Elise Jerard, 230
Wonderful If, The, Dorothy M. Johnson, 191
Writers' Conferences to Be Held in 1952, 129
Writer's Library, The, 101, 150, 222, 294, 401
Writing Is Learning, Phyllis Lee Peterson, 410

Yerkow, Charles, First Things First, 303
You Can Write — If . . . , Nancy Barnes, 44
Young, Clint, Making Them Different, 158